

CONSTRUCTION UPDATE

Downtown branch remains open during construction

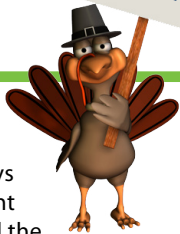

Construction on a new high-rise continues near our Main branch (downtown at 610 E. 11th St.), but we'll soon be kicking up some dust of our own.

In October, we'll begin demolishing our annex building across the street to make way for a brand new downtown branch!

Meanwhile, our current downtown branch remains open (please be careful, obey traffic signs and watch for street closures and warnings when visiting.).

Velocity is committed to serving our downtown members and we will always have a branch here.

Velocity raises funds for area school kids

Never underestimate the power of caring members, employees and social media! This summer, Velocity hosted its second annual Pack-to-School fundraiser benefitting our friends at Todos

Juntos Learning Center on Austin's east side.

This organization seeks to help all families — regardless of faith, income, or ethnicity — gain access to a quality learning experience.

Velocity Credit Union Community Relation Specialist Nico Ramsey presents the proceeds from our fundraiser to representatives of Todos Juntos Learning Center.

Our volunteers became heroes for a day

On Sunday, September 15, our friends at CASA (Court Appointed Special Advocates) of Travis County hosted their 10th annual Superhero Run 5K & Kids 1K at the Broadmoor Campus near the Domain in Austin. In addition to the races, the event featured a dance party and adult/children/pet costume contests with trophies and prizes.

Why a superhero theme? Because, to so many children in our community, CASA volunteers are just that! CASA is not your typical volunteer opportunity — the organization advocates and acts as a voice for abused or neglected children. When the state steps in to protect a child's safety, judge-appointed, trained CASA volunteers make independent and informed recommendations to the court. Proceeds collected from this event go toward providing the tools necessary to help train those volunteers to be effective advocates for these kids.

members to sign up and join us, offering a promo code for $5 off registration. We also collected monetary donations from those who wished to help but couldn't participate in the race.

If you missed out, you can help by becoming a CASA advocate! You can learn more about and apply for the organization's different volunteer roles at www.casatexas.org/volunteer, or you can RSVP for an upcoming Volunteer Info Session at www.casatexas.org/infosession.

Velocity Credit Union employees and their families gathered at the Central Texas Food Bank and volunteered their time to help Texans in need.

We raised money and spirits in volunteer shift at Food Bank

On August 10, Velocity employees volunteered their time at the Central Texas Food Bank.

According to the charitable organization, two-thirds of the people it serves say they had to choose between buying food and paying for housing in the past year. Eighty percent say they had to choose between food and medicine.

Every summer, Velocity hosts a monetary fundraiser for members in addition to a company volunteer day. More than 7,000 meals were provided for hungry families in our community.
